

pop twist

entertainment, inc.

Planet Rock Profiles Comprehensive Title List

Sheryl Crow

The ultimate rock and roller keeps belting out winners. With Detours, Sheryl bares her emotions as she breezes along that every-day winding road of stardom. Hear Love Is Free and other hits; share a conversation on her latest trials and triumphs.

Linkin Park

Metallic pop with a touch of rap and a light hint of hip-hop. Linkin Park leapfrogged from tweenie idols to mainstream magnets. Hear how these best-selling artists keep up with countless fans and millions of CDs.

Estelle

Soul singing; the update. John Legend duo-ed with her, and chose her as the first artist to release on his new label. Rolling Stone called her the future of music, and her American Boy Kanye West seems to agree. Find out what makes Estelle so buzz-worthy.

Kid Rock

If you like your rock and roll outrageous—and who doesn't?—Kid Rock is your guy. Somehow, he shows a heartland son's wistful side, too. Catch up with rock's been-around bad boy.

Ricky Martin

Martin shares the life and music that comes with ivin' la Vida Loca of a Puerto Rican international superstar. The wild ride from boy-band heartthrob to blockbuster hit-maker.

Nelly Furtado - Today

An all-new interview with this bigger-than-ever Canadian/Latina singer-songwriter. Features chart-toppers Promiscuous and Maneater from the sensational Loose album.

Alicia Keys - Updated

No One except this multi Grammy Winner has such elegant style. Beyond the bittersweet songbook, get to know Alicia Keys.

Kelly Clarkson

American Idol waved a wand over this gum-snapping Texan, and a pop princess was born. Five million fans went on to crown the 'Since U Been Gone' star the golden girl of music today.

Rob Thomas

Thomas moved out of Matchbox Twenty and into a place of his own. On a new dance floor, he now tangos with Latin, funk, and hip-hop.

Shakira

Powerful vocals, inspired lyrics, and uninhibited, sensual dancing fused together; the Columbian-born Shakira has hit US shores like an unstoppable force of nature.

Sean Paul

A Jamaican player hooks up with hip-hop's hottest ladies. Hear how this water polo-champ-turned-DJ became the dancehall sultan of sweat.

Coldplay Today

Celebrity superstar Chris Martin lifted supercharged heartaches into the rock stratosphere. Behind the passionate band that's become today's ticket-to-kill-for.

Oasis

Rock and Roll, Super-Sized. The Big music, Big headlines, Big record sales, Big fan base, and Stadium-Sized spirit of Oasis.

Black-Eyed Peas

The band that told rap to lighten up, Black Eyed Peas is where hip hop meets peace & love. Fans can't get enough of Fergie and this Grammy-winning quartet's good-vibe songs and break dancing.

The Plain White Ts

Every summer gives us one signature hit to forever remember it by. Hey There Delilah creamed the competition, and The Plain White Ts became more than a fashion statement.

Evanescence

Singer Amy Lee brought this Goth-rock group straight outta Arkansas and into the double-platinum spin.

Good Charlotte

Post-grunge with a bite. After a stint as MTV VJs and a string of hit albums, Good Charlotte has taken center stage in the punk pop scene.

Franz Ferdinand

"Take Me Out" made modern angst seem... well... fun. Franz Ferdinand shot out of Glasgow's art school scene to travel straight up the US charts.

Anastacia

*She made it on MTV's talent war The Cut, and landed VH1's Divas Live. How Anastacia's tunes set the beat for pop's dance floor.*

Doves

The soul and heart under Manchester's party scene. Doves capture the thumping nights and morning-after reflections. Moving ballads with a beat that moves have earned them the 'next big thing' tag.

The Bravery

Their DIY sound traveled from rock's outer ring to ring-tone popular with "It Was An Honest Mistake". This post 9-11 New York band now has nothing to fear.

Kaiser Chiefs

"I Predict A Riot" became the theme song of the party hearty crowd before the Kaiser Chiefs even had a label. How a foot stamping, wild weekend band crashed into the new wave.

KT Tunstall

A Scottish singer/songwriter talks about her Chinese background, her eclectic blends, and her catapult out of the girls-with-guitars box.

Green Day

From punk cult to pop culture, how Green Day smashed its way on to the very, very short list of today's hottest bands.

Beyoncé

No introduction necessary if you've been within the sound of a radio during the past decade. Meet the winner of 5 Grammys!

My Chemical Romance

*The latest in glam-rock from five New Jersey pop-punks. I'm Not Okay began a spin-out from '70s retro, with a band that's turned big ideas into a fist-pumping fan base.*

Jamiroquai

*A self-described "human beatbox" and his acid-funk, multi-platinum and MTV award-winning band are on their way. The Napoleon Dynamite dance video was just a prepare-for-takeoff warning.*

The Hives

They got a rep as the Swedish garage rock king bees. Now their newest music is getting some serious worldwide buzz.

The Killers

This category-busting Las Vegas foursome is the New new wave, where post-glam meets post-punk. Somebody Told Me these guys are not stepping out of the spotlight anytime soon.

Air

"Talkie Walkie" took off like a rocket. "Alone In Kyoto" was the memorable sound of "Lost In Translation". Visit the world behind the other-wordly sound of the French techno-pop duo.

Nick Cave

Catch up on love and death with post-punk's most lyrical myth-maker.

Scissor Sisters

Part glam rock, part vintage burlesque, this mostly male quintet gives a tip of the fedora to Elton John, and lays on the camp theatrics. Meet the unstoppable New Yorkers leading the disco rediscovery.

Keane

The reflective indie-pop trio of vocal, drums and piano found a following—fast—with their Hopes and Fears.

The Corrs

Family Fun: How three sisters and a brother fused modern rock and traditional Irish music to become one of the world's most successful bands.

Ms. Dynamite

The explosive Ms. Dynamite blasted hip hop beyond bling, and hit the r&b scene with a bang.

Lenny Kravitz

Meet the mega-hit maker and rock star composer-to-the-stars!

Katie Melua

This young jazz and blues artist from Soviet Georgia seems an unlikely hit maker. But searchers for the next new sensation are now chanting "Call Off The Search".

Snow Patrol

They started as a heart-crushing mix of distorted British pedal rock and US alternative guitar pop. Their latest album sees the band grow up, fill out, and tour some of the coolest venues in America.

Daniel Bedingfield

"Gotta Get Thru This" brought Daniel Bedingfield beyond the boy/teen scene, and into the pop mainstream. The guy on everyone's gotta get it /gotta hear it list.

Kelis

Is her milkshake really better than yours? R&B's most super-confident voice speaks out.

The Rasmus

The band that came in from the cold: Down from Helsinki and onto the record as one of the hottest bands on the scene today.

Blur

Moving beyond the Beatles comparisons led to massive hit after hit. How the been-there-done-that chart toppers came up with a striking new sound.

The Beautiful South

Combine subversive lyrics with a bright and breezy take. The latest from the irony-propelled multi-platinum band.

Semisonic

How do you follow up a monster hit like "Closing Time"? Easy, if you've got Semisonic's Chemistry.

The Zutons

Rolling Stone called them "Kinks-y", and gave them a spot on their best albums list-- An out of this world start for a band that blends it all together and belts it right back at ya.

Blu Cantrell

She stepped out of the background with a single that scorched the urban R&B scene. See why Blu is on everyone's "watch closely" list.

Moby

Techno never felt so good. Moby led electronica from the place to chill to the hottest dance floors. A fascinating interview with the megastar who's become pop's most articulate voice.

Travis

The enduring Travis, and the sound that has moved from back-to-the-basics to back up the charts.

Macy Gray

Her trademark rasp and heart-stopping songs won her critical acclaim and until-forever fans. The earthy, down-to-earth Macy with her newest songs.

Stereophonics

Their fans have stuck with them through thick and thin. The rewards better than ever new music. The bright, brash notes of the Stereophonics.

Beck

With the hip, folky single "Loser", Beck came to define the indie scene. A revealing talk with the leading singer-songwriter of today and tomorrow.

The Klaxons

Fluorescent glow-sticks with a kink: It's rock, it's dance... it's nu-rave. Look for a major party scene whenever the Klaxons step up.

Tom Jones

After four decades in a musical category all his own, he's back to his R&B roots. The legend is still going strong, with his latest album produced by Wyclef Jean.

The Red Hot Chili Peppers

LA's hottest band continues to mix pop, funk, punk and hip-hop into a recipe for success.

Michelle Branch

This guitar-playing teen rose to the top of the charts with hits she wrote and sang. Then came the smash duo with Santana. Is she happy now?

Sum 41

The Canadian punk-pop band that set off the new wave of the 00s when "Fat Lip" became a radio and MTV smash. And for their next trick...

Mel C

She became one of the most famous women on earth as Sporty Spice, and followed that with a million-seller solo CD. Now Melanie is back.

Massive Attack

They've shaped and shifted dance music, pop, hip hop, and drum & bass rock. Now the creative whirlwind is about to be unleashed again.

Craig David

From R&B prodigy to international pop star...Craig David's meteoric rise.

Tracy Chapman

Her debut album sold 10 million copies worldwide. Four Grammys later, this influential singer-songwriter looks back—and forward.

Chemical Brothers

The techno-spinning duo personified Manchester's 24-hour party people, and made electronica into a sensation.

R.E.M.

Legendary forefathers of alternative rock, multi-Grammy Awards, multi platinum albums... A talk with this household-name band.

Meatloaf

How the eclectic phenomena has managed to stay ahead of the curve both then and now.

The Darkness

Meet the masters of metal. They're leading the hard rock revival of the '00s... and laughing all the way.

The Thrills

A tribute to the California coast from a Dublin band, 'So Much For The City', like The Thrills, refuses to be easily pegged.

The Manic Street Preachers

They started in Wales with a dangerous image and rabid fans. Frontman James Dean Bradfield and the trio lay out the roots and reach of their provocative sound.

Pink

New music, and the interview with this outspoken rocker, so... better get the party started.

Alanis Morissette

With 40 million CDs sold, Alanis continues to offer testament of personal struggles . A revealing interview with this introspective super songstress.

Ashanti

She blasted onto the charts: three top ten songs during the same week. How a teen r&b star came of age on a very big stage.

Magic Numbers

The Sixties strike again. Lead vocalist Romeo fronts this folk-pop sisters-and-brothers-act with melodies that are sometimes sunny, sometimes heartbreaking, and always on the harmony of one true love.

Shaggy

His multi-platinum " Hot Shots ", including megasingle, "It Wasn't Me!", highlight a career that began in Jamaica and traveled to the top of the reggae, r&b and rap charts.

Kylie Minogue

Australia and Europe's biggest selling female singer became a UK icon. Now that she's finally conquered the US, this pop superstar rules the globe.

Ja Rule

His gruff raps have gone straight to listeners' hearts. Hit solo singles, duos with J-Lo and Ashanti, and a buzz that won't quit add up to rap radio's most recognizable voice.

Samantha Mumba

Sensational debut "Gotta Tell You" set her apart from the pack of teen divas. Samantha talks about what its like to be young, gifted, black... and Irish.

Dr. John

The legendary New Orleans 'Night Tripper' mixes his own blend of rock, R&B, psychedelia and voodoo.

Stand

"Break The Cycle" was a #1 hit back when. Now these New England protégés of Limp Bizkit are back on the charts for another round.

Ash

A talk with the band that has survived and thrived after teenage stardom.

Nickelback

First: monster hit "How You Remind Me". Next: a super feat from Chad Kroeger with the Spiderman theme. How today's top hard rockers scaled the charts.

Wheatus

Teen anthem "Teenage Dirtbag" was just the bang beginning for Long Island singer/songwriter/guitarist Brendan B. Brown's quartet.

Westlife

This boy-band made teen hearts throb overseas...then took aim at the US.

Faithless

The launching pad for Dido, and a longtime UK club and chart staple. A look at the future with these farsighted talents.

Sugababes

Three teens triumph in the popularity game. Sugababes mix it up—dance, hip-hop, garage—all infused with their multiethnic edge.

Richard Ashcroft

The Verve's one-time legendary frontman has moved from grabbing UK headlines to grabbing US audiences. An inside look at a contemporary wildman.

JJ72

The Irish-based indie guitar trio has been a breath of fresh... Well, as the CD says, Oxygen.

The Cranberries

How the emblem of one era is soaring into the next.

Wyclef Jean

Wyclef forged musical links to anyone and everyone. A session with the influential hip hop star.

Foo Fighters

Dave Grohl's post-Nirvana phenomenon blasts onwards. PRP looks and listens with the soundmakers of a generation.

Outkast

Their career went multi-platinum, and the hits keep on coming. The view from the top of the music world.

Nelly Furtado: The Early Years

A first meet-up with the chart-topping vocalist whose runaway hits took everyone by surprise.

Garbage

Two megahit albums. Then "Beautiful Garbage" hit the deck running, and made techno-angst into a genre all its own.

Sting

The unstoppable Sting continues to run ahead of the pack without missing a single beat.

Coldplay: The Early Years

The mellow sound of 'Yellow' created a world-wide frenzy. In a two-CD turbo trip, Coldplay became the gold standard in sensitive indie rock. It began here.

Gabrielle

"Dreams" made the Guinness Book; "Find Your Way" was a million-seller; "Out of Reach" was the theme of "Bridget Jones's Diary". How an understated South-Londoner continues to succeed.

Alice Cooper

Still inspiring his legions of fans, the legendary Alice speaks out and talks back.

The Waterboys

The influential '80s band is making waves today; hear all about it!

Errol Brown (Hot Chocolate)

"Full Monty" renown and the "Still Sexy" CD revived this long-time phenomenon.

Morcheeba

London-based dance-pop trio brings its multi-ethnic trip hop sound worldwide.

Fatboy Slim

From revolutionizing Britain's acid house sound, to US platinum and the Spike Jonze video... A sit-down with the unique Fatboy Slim.

Marc Almond of Soft Cell

Cabaret, camp, synth-pop, goth, electronica... How to juggle them all and come out looking like a poster boy.

Sister Sledge

They started as kids, and just kept getting better. Hear "Lost In Music", "He's The Greatest Dancer", "We Are Family" and "Frankie" from one of pop's most enduring combos.

Skunk Anansie

Heavy Metal meets Feminist Rage for a multi-racial experience like none other.

Eagle Eye Cherry

Singer/songwriter, son of trumpeter Don, brother of rapper Neneh. Eagle Eye follows a family tradition of bypassing tradition to do your own musical thing --- and do it right.

Toploader

What's behind the smash UK band and their white soul anthem hits?

Joe Strummer of The Clash

I Fought The Law; London's Calling; Rock The Casbah; Yalla Yalla

David Gray

Late Night Radio; This Year's Love; Please Forgive Me; Babylon

Counting Crows

Please inquire for song list

Sinead O'Connor

Mandinka; Nothing Compares 2 U; No Man's Woman; Jealous

Mark Knopfler of Dire Straits

Sultans of Swing; Money for Nothing; Walk Of Life; What It Is

Supergrass

Alright; Richard III; Mary; Moving

UB40

Light My Fire; please inquire for additional song list

Finley Quaye

Songs from Spiritualized; inquire for additional song list

Fun Lovin' Criminals

Please inquire for song list

Barenaked Ladies

The Old Apartment; Brian Wilson; It's All Been Done; One Week

Cast

Alright; John Power; Guiding Star; Magic Hour; Beat Mama

Catatonia

You've Got A Lot To Answer For; Mulder & Scully; Road Rage; Dead From The Waist Down

Chris Rea

I Can Hear Your Heart Beat; On the Beach; Road to Hell; Julia

Def Leppard

Animal; Hysteria; When Love & Hate; Promises

dEUS

Instant Street; Sister Dew; Hotel Lounge; Little Arithmetic

Gomez

Get Myself Arrested; Whippin' Picadilly; Rhythm & Blues Alibi

Jewel

Who'll Save Your Soul; You Were Meant For Me; Foolish Games; Down So Long; Hands

Madness

Our House; One Step Beyond; It Must Be Love; Lovestruck

Ocean Colour Scene

The Riverboat Song; The Circle; 100 Mile High City; Profit In Peace

Space

Neighbourhood; Female of the Species; The Ballad of Tom Jones

Suede

Animal Nitrates; Wild Ones; The Beautiful Ones; She's in Fashion

Suzanne Vega

Marlene On The Wall; Luka; No Cheap Thrill; Tom's Diner (DNA remix)

The Cardigans

Been It; Love Fool; Erase & Rewind; My Favourite Game

Divine Comedy

The Pop Stars Fear of the Pollen Count; Becoming More Like Alfie; National Express; Generation Sex